

Legacies

Leaving a Legacy

One of the most important ways a person can help St Nicholas Hospice is to think of us and our patients when making a will. You may consider leaving us a gift of a specific sum of money, or items such as jewellery, personal effects or land (a pecuniary bequest), or a share of your estate, once debts and pecuniary bequests have been paid (a residuary bequest).

An up to date Will ensures you can

- provide for your family and friends to protect their future
- support the charities you cared about in life with a gift
- plan for your funeral, and put aside some money to cover expenses
- update your wishes since you last reviewed your Will
