

Introduction

Because of extensive refurbishment work at the Hospice during the current months our usual programme of training is reduced.

We are still offering the FREE 'Essentials' sessions, which will be held at the West Suffolk Hospital Education Centre until 3rd November, when they return to St Nicholas Hospice.

The Essentials

Improving supportive and palliative care for adults.

Time: 2.00-3.30pm

14 July: Grief and Bereavement in Adults (Dave Rushton)

8 Sept: Mental Capacity Act: An e-learning tool (Maddy Bass)

22 Sept: Cancer & Cancer Treatments (Donna Cathmoir)

6 Oct: Palliative Care Emergencies (Sally Coldrey)

20 Oct: End of Life Care Strategy: How will it change practice? (TBA)

3 Nov: The Future of St Nicholas Hospice (Barbara Gale)

24 Nov: Handling Unexpected Distress on the Phone (Maddy Bass)

8 Dec: Financial Challenges in Palliative Care: What can Patients Claim? (Ann Jeffrey)

To avoid disappointment book your FREE place early by contacting rachel.brown@stnh.org.uk or 01284 715591.

Need to cancel? Let us know as soon as possible.

Non-attendance without prior notification will incur a 20.00 charge.

These courses are subsidised by Suffolk PCT.
