

Mr Paul Marchant

Trustee

Career profile:

Mostly self-employed entrepreneurial. Previous companies formed, run as successful businesses and sold are Hampers Catering Company and Marchants Cookware Ltd. Currently a founder director of Hahn Trading Ltd, a business developing, manufacturing, importing and exporting cookware and associated products under the Hahn brand.

Other community involvement:

None at present. Former parent governor at St Edmundsbury CEVAP School in Bury St Edmunds.

Why did you become a St Nicholas Hospice Care Trustee?

St Nicholas Hospice Care is a wonderful example of a community organisation working hard solely for the benefit of other members of the same community. The value provided by the Hospice to so many is incalculable and I am privileged to be able to contribute.
